DIXON WILL BOX WHITE, CHALLENGER WINS, The Feather Weight Champion Will Be Put

Everything is in readiness for the great twenty-round contest to-night between "The Dutchman" Gets Out of George Dixon, of Nova Scotia, and Tommy a Bad Pocket and Beats White, of Chicago, before the new Broadway A. C., which is located on the site former the Leaders Home. ly occupied by "Ye Olde London Streete,"

This contest has caused considerable comment among the sporting fraternity of the Harry Reed, First in a Selling Stake, Escap es Bids, to the Great Satiswhole country as the bout will also decide the featherweight championship which Dixon has so successfully defended against all comers, both in this country and Engfaction of the Crowd.

While Dixon has been a two to one favor TWO VICTORIES FOR JOE HEWITT

While Dixon has been a two to one favorite in the betting on upper Broadway for the past two days, the little Chicagoan has any aumber of admirers, who accommodated many of the Dixon enthusiasts. The followers of White claim that Dixon has never met a man with such two fast hands as White, who, with his knowledge of ring tactics, will be able to avoid the colored boy's rushes and famous swings. They point to the fact that Dixon has never been able to beat a straight hitter, and refer to his bouts with Billy Plinnaer and 'Pedier' Palmer to substantiate this fact. The admirers of Dixon, however, have not the slightest fear but that the champlon will be returned the winner to-night. George is as good as he ever was in his life, and, barring accident, should win inside of the twenty-round limit. Both men came to town yesterday and look to be in perfect shape for the encounter, White is a much taller boy than blook to be in perfect shape for the encounter. White is a much taller boy than Dixon and is very confident of winning. Hewill be handled by Harry Gilmore, while "Parson" Davies will counsel him during the rounds. Dixon will be looked after by Tom Sharkey and Manager Tom O'Rourke. The preliminary bout will introduce Danny McBride, of this city, and Johnny Gormany of Lows Island in a ten round of the first part of Lord Princes Flora in the few moments that clapse before the barrier files up.

The five furlong race, for two-year-olds, non-winners of three races, brought eight to the post. Distinction was favorite, but Challenger was recognized as a dangerous factor, provided that he ran with some degree of kindness after his rest. There was a strong tip on Friendship, who was bucked from tens to sixes. He cut out the running, with Passover in attendance and the favorite third. Challenger was lying fourth on the rail, and in the stretch he was in so bad a pocket that his case looked hopeless. Friendship and Passover were in front of him, with Distinction hemming him on the outside. BEN HOLLIDAY FIRST HOME, He Captured the Telegraph Stakes at Oakley from a Good Field.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 24.-The talent got an even break at Onkley to-day, three favorites and three outsiders won the races. The Telegraph Stakes was the principal event of the day. It proved an easy thing for Ben Holliday, who won cleverly from Harry McCouch, who finished very strong. Will Wallace and Byron McClelland lost a lot of money in the last race. They backed Refugee from 2 to 1 to 4 to 5, but the best he could do was finish second to Irish Lady.
